

A SLICE OF PIE

Sunday, September 18, 2011 | 12:30–4 pm

LACMA | North Piazza | Free, general admission* required for entry into galleries and tour.

A day to celebrate baking, creativity, and everything pie. LACMA is this year's host for the 3rd Annual KCRW Good Food Pie Contest, where everyone from home-cooks to professionals will be judged by some of LA's best chefs and food writers, including our very own Kris Morningstar, chef at Ray's. Enjoy family friendly activities including an artful 'inedible' pie-making workshop, gallery tours, an apron fashion show, and a live, pie-appropriate soundtrack by KCRW DJ Anne Litt—all for free. Add on a general admission ticket and you can take a special tour in the galleries, too.

Pie Contest entry is now closed.

Schedule

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| 11 am–11 pm | Pie Cocktail available at Ray's & Stark Bar |
| 11 am–1 pm | Competitors drop off pies |
| 12–4 pm | Pie and Lemonade from Patina available for purchase— sometimes it's okay to eat pie for lunch |
| 12:30–3:30 pm | Family Art-Making Activity: Pie Art |
| 1 pm | Private pie tasting by the judges |
| 1 pm | Gallery Tour: European Decorative Arts—fancy plates and tea cups to accompany your pie— good for all ages! |
| 2 pm | Judges bring out top 15 pies and judge in public |
| 2–4 pm | KCRW DJ Anne Litt spins |
| 2–2:30 pm | Apron Walk-off!—Come to LACMA in your apron and get free general admission* to the museum. Then, participate in an Apron Fashion Show! |
| 3–3:30 pm | Competitors serve samples of their pies to the public (available while supplies last). |
| 4 pm | Announcement of winners |
| 5–10 pm | Pie-inspired prix fixe menu at Ray's: Chef's selection of an appetizer and entrée, & fried pie by Pastry Chef Josh Graves |

*Does not include admission to Tim Burton.

Image: Jo Ann Callis, Tigger and Apple Pie, 1980s, (detail) Photograph, Chromogenic development (Ektacolor) print, 9 $\frac{5}{8}$ x 12 $\frac{1}{4}$ in. Anonymous gift, Los Angeles, in honor of Robert Sobieszek, Photography Department