LACMA CELEBRATES ITS NINTH ANNUAL MUSE COSTUME BALL WITH STANLEY KUBRICK

ANNUAL HALLOWEEN EXTRAVAGANZA FEATURES LIVE MUSIC, DRINKS, AND EXCLUSIVE ACCESS TO EXHIBITION

WHAT: The Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA) presents its ninth annual Muse Costume Ball on Wednesday, October 31, 2012.

The evening will offer exclusive access to the museum's special exhibition Stanley Kubrick before it opens to the public. In addition, guests will be treated to Kubrick-themed live music, video projections, DJs, art installations, and LACMA Muse's annual costume contest.

WHERE: BP Grand Entrance | *Eyes Wide Shut
8-9 pm

Check-in begins at the BP Grand Entrance with characters in full costume inspired by the masquerade ball scenes from Eyes Wide Shut. Photo booths will be available for guests to capture their memories.

LA Times Central Court | *2001: A Space Odyssey
8 pm-12 am

LACMA's LA Times Central Court will feature a 2001: A Space Odyssey-themed experience with the West Coast debut of Archimedes, a robotic wall of moving mirrors constructed by renowned LA native DJ Daedalus and Emmanuel Baird.

BP Grand Entrance | Costume Contest
10:30-11 pm

Guests are invited to take part in the annual costume contest with categories including best Stanley Kubrick character, best masquerade attire, and best Halloween costume.

LACMA West Penthouse | The Shining and *A Clockwork Orange
11 pm-1 am

The festivities continue in the LACMA West Penthouse, which features dance sets by Daedalus and set recreations of The Shining and A Clockwork Orange by Sypher Art Studios.

WHEN: Wednesday, October 31, 2012
8 pm-1am

WHERE: 5905 Wilshire Blvd.
