

PLEASE REVIEW THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION BEFORE YOUR SCHEDULED VISIT TO THE MUSEUM

Where do I park?

Buses may park on Sixth Street (one block north of Wilshire Boulevard) or on Curson Avenue, on the eastern border of Hancock Park. Before beginning your tour, please communicate with your driver where you will meet after your tour has concluded. If you carpool, metered parking is available on surrounding streets (be sure to check signs for restrictions), or you may use the Sixth Street garage. All-day parking is available for ten dollars and may be pre-paid at the box office. All book bags, backpacks, purses, and lunch bags must be left on the bus or in the car. Large bags and backpacks are not permitted in the galleries.

Where do I check in?

Please check in with the security guard at the BP Grand Entrance off Wilshire Blvd and Ogden Ave. You will meet your docents in front of the outdoor installation Urban Light. Please arrive fifteen minutes before the tour is scheduled to begin. The museum is closed to the public until noon, and you may not enter the galleries without a docent until that time

How many chaperones should I bring?

The museum requires one chaperone per every ten students. Classes may not bring more than one chaperone for every five students. Chaperones are responsible for students' conduct and adherence to the rules for appropriate behavior in the galleries. Failure to properly supervise your students may result in your group being asked to leave the museum.

What should my students bring?

Students do not need to bring anything as LACMA docents will provide all necessary supplies. Students' belongings should be left on the bus, or they will be checked upon arrival. Please avoid bringing any valuable items to the Museum.

Where can I eat my lunch?

Unfortunately, the Museum does not have lunchroom facilities for students. Classes may eat in the BP Grand Entrance, the LA Times Central Court or in the park. Although students may purchase food from the café, seating is not permitted. Students may bring sack lunches, or box lunches may be ordered from the café. Orders must be placed one week before your arrival. Please contact the Plaza Café at 323-857-4797.

What happens if I am late?

If your groups arrive late, your program will be shortened accordingly, finishing at the originally designated time. Groups more than thirty minutes late will be canceled and may enter the museum during public hours (12 pm on weekdays) for a self-guided visit.

What if I need to cancel my tour?

The museum strongly encourages teachers to avoid canceling tours. However, in the event of cancellation, please contact schooltours@lacma.org or call 323 857-6109 as soon as possible. Please note that a school tour will only be rescheduled once.

What if I want more information about my tour?

You can contact schooltours@lacma.org or call 323 857-6108 at any time. Please note that you may experience a delay in a return call when leaving a voice message.

Museum Rules & Regulations

- No touching works of art including outdoor sculpture. Viewers must not come closer than 24 inches to any work of art.
- No touching walls or any parts of installations. No sitting on platforms in the galleries or gardens.
- No eating, drinking, smoking, gum-chewing, excess noise, or running in the galleries.
- All groups must comply with instructions or requests from docents, gallery attendants and museum staff.
- While sketching is allowed, only pencils may be used in the galleries.
- Backpacks/large purses and lunches should be left on the bus/ in cars. Oversized bags will not be permitted in the galleries.
- No-flash photography is allowed in certain areas of the Permanent Collection. Please follow direction from the museum security team.
- Lectures are not permitted in Specially Ticketed Exhibitions. Your group may be asked to disperse by security if lecturing in these galleries.